A message from our President, John Ives

I begin by sharing a message from Rabbi Rebecca W. Sirbu, the Director of Rabbis Without Borders:

"In Jewish tradition, the number 18 means 'chai,' life. May this 18th year of the new century bring us the strength and resilience we need to face all of life's challenges. May we be blessed with courage to stand up for our convictions and compassion for others. May we be surrounded by love and support from those who are closest to us."

With the difficulties of 2017 behind us, let us all be committed to making the New Year positive and successful for our Temple family. And what better way to have begun our year than with the bat mitzvah of Turia Stark Williams on January 6. I have experienced many b'nai mitzvah services in my life, but admittedly none has moved and inspired me as Turia's did. She is such an inspiration to our congregation.

Your Rabbi Search Committee continues to be hard at work, and in the past week has brought two prospective rabbis to town for interviews. A tremendous amount of time and energy has been spent by this committee, and I am especially grateful to Diane Weil and Charlotte Mussafer for leading this effort.

Our Sisterhood Sabbath was held on Jan. 26, and as always, was an exceptional service. There are never enough words of praise for all that the Sisterhood does for the Temple.

And on Jan. 28 the dedication of the Rabbi Elliot L. Stevens Kol Ami Religious School was conducted at Temple Beth Or. The renaming of the religious school was the idea of the board of Agudath Israel-Etz Ahayem Synagogue, and we sincerely appreciate their generous and overwhelming gesture in honoring the memory and legacy of our beloved Rabbi Stevens.

And in February, the 15th annual Jewish Food Festival is just around the corner. We are all excited that this event has continued for so many years, and we know that the community looks forward to being with us. We do need your support both in offering to cook as well as working on Sunday, February 25. Please do all that you can to help make this important event as successful as possible.

I close by once again asking that you make Temple worship services a priority. Our services are inspiring, with your friends and family giving of their time to make the brief respite from the daily grind as meaningful as possible. I look forward to sharing these moments with you.

SISTERHOOD

The smells of baking have been filling the air. Many thanks to my Baking Chairs: Sharon and Danielle Berry, Joy Kaplan and Maxine Goldner, Susan Bernstein, Diane Weil, Sandy Lynn Stevens and Marlene Beringer. They have been busy with their teams baking strudel, rugelah, curabies and latkes.

Please come help us bake challah with Marlene, praline matzah with Diane, and curabies with Joy. It is a wonderful experience and loads of laughing!

On January 26 we had our Sisterhood Shabbat. Our speaker was Janna Bailey, from Child Protect. It was an enlightening speech. I would like to thank Diane Weil for organizing our event. A special thank you to Turia Williams, Clare Weil, and Becky Taylor for providing the wonderful music to this special Shabbat. Leading the service was Karen Goldstein; candle lighter, myself; and readings by Akiko Bloom. It was even more special because Temple hosted a Rabbi candidate.

Karen Goldstein needs your help supporting the Food Festival. Please send her your Volunteer form. There is a job for everyone.

Don't forget: I will need help filling containers with baked goods the Saturday morning before the Food

Festival on February 25.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY NOW AVAILABLE

WANTED: YAHRZEIT COORDINATOR

Those who memorialize their loved ones by coming to Temple to recite Kaddish on the Yahrzeit [anniversary] of their passing appreciate the advance notifications they receive as the Yahrzeit date approaches. Aimee Harris has been coordinating these Yahrzeit notifications, filling this important volunteer position with warmth, tact and attention to detail. We are grateful for her dedication.

As Aimee's tenure as Yahrzeit coordinator comes to an end, we seek a volunteer who can take over this important task. This person will work closely with Gina to handle the Yahrzeit notices. Aimee will be available for guidance. If you are interested, please call Gina Friday at the temple office, (334) 262-3314. Many thanks.

HUNTINGDON COLLEGE NIGHT AT TBO - MARCH 16

Once again, Temple Beth Or welcomes religion students and faculty of Huntingdon College to our temple for a program of discussion and worship, followed by a reception. This long-standing custom has proven to be important to both communities.

On Friday evening, March 16, Rabbi Matt Dreffin will make an opening presentation to our guests at 5:00 p.m. in the sanctuary. The students and faculty in the Department of Religion will then join us for services, after which our Sisterhood will host a reception open to all. Please welcome our guests, and join us for this special service.

Help Needed Feb. 20-24 for TBO Annual Food Festival

The Food Festival is just around the corner!

We very much need help during morning hours on the week of February 20-24. If you are available during those times, please let us know. Because Steve Schloss begins working on ordering and picking up supplies well before the food festival, he also needs help on some specific dates prior to the week of the 20th. Please email him at stcastle@aol.com or call him at 281-8354.

The Treasure and Collectible Market is collecting items now! We are looking for "gently loved" treasures that we might sell. You may drop items off at the Temple any Tuesday – Friday. Marlon will gladly help you unload at the Temple.

Please contact me at 546-2521 or jjives@charter.net, or Karen Goldstein at 265-1145 or kackaboo@gmail.com, to volunteer.
